TO ALL APPLICANTS:

This application is used for all of The Portland Foundation's 2015 summer scholarships. Each scholarship is unique. Please read the restrictions for each scholarship carefully to see whether or not you qualify for the scholarship for which you wish to be considered. All of the scholarships have a financial need component.

(If you do not wish to submit financial information, you will receive 0 points in the need category.)

All of the scholarships are judged anonymously.

We ask that you be as accurate as possible, knowing that any false or misleading information may disqualify you for consideration. Please be assured that all information will be treated with the strictest confidence.

SCHOLARSHIP SELECTION PROCESS:

The scholarship committee is composed of board members of The Portland Foundation and members of the donor family when applicable. The committee reviews all applications turned in by the deadline. Each student is numerically scored based upon the following criteria:

1. Academic accomplishment
2. Financial need and resources available to the student
3. Activity and involvement in school, work and the community
4. Essay content and competency (when applicable).

All applications will be scored without the committee knowing the identity of the applicant. Names should only appear on the first page of the application.
