Part II, Line 17b - 10% Facts and Circumstance Test - 2023

The Portland Foundation (Foundation) is operated in all aspects as a public foundation. The Foundation has maintained an ongoing and active program of solicitation throughout the community it serves for financial support. The Foundation attempts to reach each one of the households in the community to the maximum extent possible. Please consider the following:

- The Foundation solicits donors for estate gifts through local attorneys and estate planners.
- The Foundation regularly sends other mailings with the purpose of raising funds from the Foundation's broad base of support.
- The Foundation publicizes the public nature of its activities in the local newspaper, including the availability of scholarships and grants.
- The Foundation's annual meeting is open to all, and the financial records are open to inspection by any interested party.
- The Foundation participates in local exhibitions and activities to raise awareness of the Foundation within the community and to attract new donors.
- The Foundation's staff and board members regularly speak to public organizations to raise awareness and attract new donors.
- Whenever possible, the Foundation sponsors workshops and events of benefit to individuals, professionals, and/or the nonprofit community.
- The endowment income generated by the individual funds that comprise the Foundation originates from a wide range of original sources. To date, the Foundation holds over 150 individual funds representing new gifts, bequests, successor trusteeships, and some pass-through funds. Fund donors are a diverse group, mirroring the socioeconomic profile of the larger community.
- The Foundation has made a deliberate effort to make fund donations more accessible to everyone in the community through a plan that permits the donor to build the principal amount of a charitable fund over time.
- Typically, the Foundation's growth has been a direct result of many smaller gifts and the matching funds that those gifts have attracted from the Lilly Endowment, Inc. and other funding sources.

In addition to broad-based financial support, the Foundation is extremely active in community outreach. Our program of grantmaking is designed to touch every individual living in our community to at least some extent. Major financial support is directed to scholarship awards, educational programs, human services, historic preservation, cultural enrichment, youth activities, public health, and community development.

The Foundation's board of directors represents a cross-section of our community. The board brings together individuals with different socioeconomic profiles, interests, professional/career affiliations, and viewpoints. None of the board members is related to the staff or to any other member of the board. Term limits are imposed to ensure that no member becomes a fixture at the Foundation. To further expand the Foundation's outreach, non-board volunteers from the community are invited to participate on the Foundation's committees.

In conclusion, the spirit of the Foundation is wholly public - in the solicitation of funds, the election of board representation, and in the programming which the Foundation carries out within the community. The Foundation not only hears the voices of the community and acts upon the community's needs accordingly but it has been pro-active by convening groups that have grown into valuable assets to the community.
